CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. Purchaser

Subject to any reserve price the highest bidder be the purchaser. The auctioneer shall be the sole judge of who was the highest bidder. In the event of any dispute between bidders for a lot the auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle the dispute as sole arbitrator and his decision shall be final. The auctioneer may (whether or not the lot has been knocked down as sold) resubmit the lot for sale by auction at the sale in progress or as soon as practicable thereafter

2. Auction Contract

Subject to condition 1, the entry of the purchaser's name in the sale book by the auctioneer or his clerk (either of whom shall be authorised by the purchaser so to enter his name) shall be binding on the purchaser and the sale book, together with these conditions shall constitute the whole of the contract between the auctioneer and the purchaser, and the vendor and the purchaser. If the vendor shall require an agreement for sale to be signed by the purchaser shall sign that agreement as soon as practicable after the fall of the hammer

3. Withdrawal of Bids

Any bid acknowledged and relied upon by the auctioneer shall not be withdrawn

4. Purchaser to Purchase as Principal

The purchaser shall be deemed to purchase as principal unless:

- (1) Prior to the sale he shall have disclosed to the person actually conducting the sale on behalf of First National that he will be bidding on behalf of a principal and shall supply the full name and address of his principal and a copy of a written authority to bid for and on behalf of that principal and
- (2) The purchaser has actual authority to bid on behalf of the disclosed principal. The onus shall be on the purchaser to who that he had such actual authority

5. Auctioneer's Right

The auctioneer and vendor reserve the following rights (which may be exercised by the auctioneer without giving any reason)

- (1) to not offer for sale any lot described in the catalogue
- (2) to offer for sale part only of any lot described in the catalogue
- (3) to offer two or more of the lots described as separate lots in the catalogue for sale together as one lot
- (4) (if any goods or lots described as separate lots in catalogue are offered for sale together as one lot and not knocked down to a successful bidder) to offer such goods or lots for auction as separate lots
- (5) to withdraw any lot or lots from sale
- (6) to refuse to accept the bidding of any person or persons
- (7) to refuse any person or persons admission to, or eject them from the auction site
- (8) to refuse to accept any bid for a lot being less than a sum named from time to time by the auctioneer
- (9) to keep secret the existence and quantum of the reserve price (if any) of a lot prior to the close of bidding or withdrawal of the lot
- (10) in the event that any purchaser shall successfully bid for more than one lot at the auction
 - (i) to appropriate any moneys received from that purchase in satisfaction or partial satisfaction of the purchase price (and GST if applicable) due in respect of any one or more such lots to the total or partial exclusion of amounts due in respect of any other such lot or lots as the auctioneer shall see fit
 - (ii) to elect at any time to treat such contract for the sale of each such lot as interdependent with each other such contract as default under all such contracts
- (11) to bid on behalf of any prospective purchaser or purchasers with or without disclosure
- (12) (in the event that any lot is not sold) to offer and sell same at the auction or immediately thereafter by private treaty but otherwise on these conditions

6. Reserve Price and Vendor's Bids

- (1) This auction sale is subject to the reserve price (if any) for each lot specified to the auctioneer by the vendor which reserve price at the auctioneer's election may be applied in respect of each group of lots or each parcel of goods which may be offered for sale as one lot
- (2) The right of the vendor (or any one person on his behalf) to make two bids for a lot, is hereby reserved

7. Details of Bidders

Any bidder shall give his full name and residential address forthwith upon being called upon to do so by the auctioneer

8. Part Payment

- (1) Prior to the end of the sale or at any time thereafter specified by the auctioneer the purchaser shall pay to the auctioneer the full purchase price of the lot (plus GST in the case of new goods where applicable plus any specified buyers premium)
- (2) The auctioneer at his discretion may not require immediate payment or part payment for a lot
- (3) The purchase price (and where applicable, any part payment thereof and GST and buyers premium) shall be paid in cash
- (4) Any balance of the purchase price for a lot shall be paid by the purchaser to the auctioneer no later than the expiration of the period during which the purchaser is required by these conditions to take delivery of the lot, and he shall not be entitled to require delivery until the purchase price (and GST, where applicable) shall have been paid in full
- (5) Time shall be of the essence of Conditions 8.1-8.4

9. Exclusion of Warranties

All lots are open for inspection prior to the sale and it is assumed that the goods have been inspected. All lots are sold with all faults latent or otherwise (if any). No error or descriptions shall vitiate the sale and the purchaser shall be bound to take delivery of the goods sold without allowance or abatement in price. Any deficiency in the quality description shall not vitiate the sale but neither the auctioneer nor the vendor shall be bound to deliver more than is in their possession. All lots (including machinery, timber, plant or other property) are to be bid for purchased and taken as the same not stand and in their present position and condition. Any warranties which might otherwise be implied by the Sale of Goods Act 1923 are excluded and shall not apply. All statements in the auction catalogue, advertisements, or brochures for forthcoming sales are statements or opinion and are not to be relied upon as statements or representations of fact, and intending bidders must satisfy themselves by inspection or otherwise as the nature of the goods offered for sale. The auctioneer and the vendor make no warranties and give no guarantees other than any warranty implied by the common law or by any State or Federal law, the exclusion of which warranty would render this condition void or in addition no warranty shall be implied from any affirmation made at the time of sale or otherwise, but in all cases where an express guarantee or warranty (other than as aforesaid) is intended, the same shall attach and be enforceable only if reduced to writing and signed by the vendor or by the auctioneer as agent for vendor

10. Knocked Down Goods at Purchaser's Risk

Each lot shall lie at the purchaser's risk from the fall of the hammer and neither the auctioneer nor the vendor shall be accountable for any deficiency damage or loss which may arise thereafter

11. Delivery and Removal

NO LOT SHALL BE REMOVED DURING THE SALE OR WITHOUT A CLEARANCE FROM THE AUCTIONEER.

Subject to Condition 8 delivery of all lots is to be taken and the goods removed by the purchaser within the time specified on the catalogue or otherwise by the auctioneer and in this respect time is of the essence. All removals shall be at the expense and risk of the purchaser but in such removal the purchaser shall do no damage, or shall forthwith make good any damage, which may be occasioned. Whether or not a lot has been paid for, any lot or part thereof not so removed by the purchaser may thereafter be removed by the auctioneer or by some person or company engaged by the auctioneer. Such removal and/or storage (whether made for the safety of goods or for the convenience of the vendor for the convenience of the auctioneer or to enable resale of the goods pursuant to Condition 13 or otherwise) shall be deemed to have been made by the auctioneer at the request of the purchaser and all costs incurred by the auctioneer or the vendor in relation to such removal and/or storage shall be immediately payable by the purchaser to the auctioneer may sue for and recover the same as liquidated damage.

12. Property in Goods

Notwithstanding Condition 10 property in lots sold shall not pass until payment in cash in full of the purchase price (and GST, where applicable) or until all cheques given on account of same have been honoured

13. Resale on Default

If the purchaser shall default in the observance or performance of any of his obligations under the conditions or any interdependent contract with the auctioneer or vendor or if any cheques given on account of his purchases at the auction are dishonoured then any moneys which the purchaser shall have paid to the auctioneer on account of his purchase or purchases shall be absolutely forfeited to the vendors of the lot or lots concerned and the vendor or vendors of the auctioneers shall be at liberty to sue the purchaser for damages, or at their option and without notice to the purchaser to resell the lot or lots in any manner (including sale by private contract) and upon such terms and conditions as they may think proper

14. Damage on Default

All losses and expense incurred by the vendor or vendors or by the auctioneer resulting from a resale pursuant to Condition 13 (whether or not the amount of those damages exceed the price that was to be paid by the purchaser for the lot or lots) and all damages which the vendor and/or the auctioneer may sustain by reason or by purchaser's default in the observance or performance of any of his obligations under these conditions, shall be recoverable from the purchaser as liquidated damages. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing the auctioneer shall be entitled to claim from the purchaser as liquidated damages any costs or expenses incurred by the auctioneer or the vendor pursuant to Condition 11 (whether or not the amount of same exceeds the price that was to be paid by the purchaser for the lot or lots) and (in the event of a resale the lot or lots pursuant to Condition 13)

- (a) the amount of any commission lost on a purchase as the result of the purchaser not proceeding with a purchase; and
- (b) commission (at the rate normally charged by the auctioneer) on the resale; and
- (c) the costs of advertising in respect of any such resale.

15. Auctioneer Bidding

The auctioneer may bid for the vendor or for any prospective purchaser and any such bid:

- (1) Need not be expressed to be effective; and
- (2) (if the highest bid to which a lot is knocked down) shall be sufficiently evidenced if recorded in the sale book

16. Interpretation

- (1) The headings or the clauses hereof are for conveniences only and do not form part of the context to be limited in any way by reference to such headings.
- (2) "Auctioneer" means First National except that where the context so permits it shall include the person actually conducting the auction sale on behalf of First National
- (3) "Vendor" included each and every one of the owners of a subject lot and the person or company instructing the auctioneer to offer that lot for sale and where more than one jointly and severally
